

A photograph of a bakery's display case. The shelves are filled with various breads and pastries. On the top shelf, there are round loaves, some with a dusting of flour, and several long, thin baguettes. To the right, a wicker basket holds more baguettes, and a glass jar with a metal lid is filled with cookies. The bottom shelf features a large quantity of croissants and other pastries. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular box is centered over the image, containing white text. The text reads "BANK HOLIDAY" and "OPENING HOURS" on the top line, "ORE" on the second line, and "CLOSED" on the third line.
